Increased Licensing Fees

Licensing and renewal fees increased July 1, 2003. This was the first increase in the licensing and renewal fees for veterinarians since 1995 and the first increase for RVT and premises registration and renewal fees since 1992.

Veterinarian licensing fee	$200	to	$225 for two years
RVT registration fee	$ 50	to	$ 75 for two years
Premises registration fee	$ 50	to	$100 for one year

Separate Surgery Room Requirement Took Effect January 1, 2004

Effective January 1, 2004, all fixed (non-mobile) veterinary premises are required to have a separate and distinct surgery room for aseptic surgeries. Hospital Inspectors will be verifying compliance with the law beginning in 2004.

Check the Board's website for further information on the separate surgery room requirement.

News & Views Newsletter on the Web

Until the State's budget crisis is resolved, the Board's newsletter, News & Views will be published on the website. As funding is available, copies will be distributed also by mail.

The newsletter contains topics such as:

Animal Injury Reporting Requirements for Rodeo Veterinarians

The California Penal Code, Section 596.7(d)(2) requires veterinarians providing health care services at professional rodeos, either as an attending or on-call veterinarian, to submit a brief written report to the Veterinary Medical Board within 48 hours of the conclusion of the rodeo.

A report is required anytime an animal injury warrants veterinary medical care. The report should list the title and date of the rodeo, the name of the attending veterinarian, and a brief description of the injury. Three such reports have been made to date.

For questions about reporting requirements, contact the Veterinary Medical Board or the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association at 719-528-4794.
